“ When family members got together and began to describe my Uncle Ron, we wholeheartedly agree that he was kind and respectful toward all people. His intellect and humorous demeanor were always quietly present in the room and were often accompanied by an all-knowing smile and a tilted eyebrow. He was stately, well-respected, and enjoyed a long and very honorable police career. He was often seen enjoying the beautiful Scott Valley countryside, where he hiked, hunted, and fished. I feel honored to have such a strong and memorable Uncle and will always strive to be more like him.

“ During my 30-year career at the San Jose Police Department I never worked for or with a person so incredibly smart, street wise and gracious as Captain Ron Utz. Ron Tannehill and I enjoyed a visit with Captain Utz at the rehab facility in Watsonville during his rehabilitation for his broken arm. I spoke with Captain Utz after he returned home from the rehab facility and he was upbeat as always, and happy to be back home with the love of his life, his wife Wilma. I will remember Captain Utz not only as my boss but as my friend and my mentor. Goodbye my friend. Goodby. - Mike Miceli

“ A true gentleman, fine Marine, great and respected boss to work for, and in every respect the epitome of citizens who "gave" to our society, our country. Will forever be better with what I learned from this man.

May his memory be eternal.

Most respectfully submitted ...
