

Adella Mae Young

December 12, 1928 - February 3, 2014

Adella Mae Young, former resident of Cave Junction, Kirby, and Roseburg, Oregon, having lived most recently in Richland, Washington, went to be with the Lord on February 3, 2014, at the home of her daughter in Etna, California. She was 85 years old.

For many years, Adella was an active member of Women of the Moose, receiving her Star Recorder Award several times. She was a Field Operations Coordinator with Experience Works, touching many lives in the Southern Oregon Area.

Adella was born December 12, 1928, in Broken Bow, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jay Oakes and Christine Slama Oakes, her brother, Collins Oakes, and her husbands, Francis Badden, Bill Cowdrey, and Rendall Young.

Adella is survived by her children: daughter, Nancy Silva and her husband, Gerry; son, James Badden and wife, Janet; daughter, Susan Hiatt and husband, Glenn; grandchildren, Lindsay Thumm, Brian Silva, West Hiatt, Jamie and Tanner Badden; great grandchildren, Curren and Greyson Thumm, Marissa Hiatt, Jackson and William Silva.

Adella was a much loved sister, daughter, mother, and friend. She will be remembered for her sense of humor and missed by all who knew, loved, and cherished her.

A private family memorial service will be held in Washington on Feb. 22, 2014. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family. Online condolences can be made at www.gridnerfuneralchapel.com. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Madrone Hospice of Yreka, CA: www.madronehospice.org/ in memory of Adella Young.
