

Alice "Tess" Theresa Stone

November 30, 1928 - January 9, 2016

Alice Theresa Stone, lovingly named Tess, a native Siskiyou County resident passed away on Saturday, January 9, 2016 at her home in Quartz Valley, California. The youngest child of Manuel and Mary Johnson, she was the last of fourteen siblings that have passed on before her. Born in Fort Jones, on November 30, 1928 Tess grew to love the rural country lifestyle. She was put on a horse at the age of two and was in love with riding from that moment on. Her family, along with gardening, fishing and horse riding in the local mountains was her joy in life.

She married Robert William Stone on May 12, 1949 and raised six children in the Bay Area. She went on to earn a degree as a Licensed Vocational Nurse and worked in the Bay Area and Yreka for many years. She came back to Siskiyou County in 1977 where she returned to country life growing lush vegetable gardens, raising chickens and riding horses. She is preceded in death by her husband, Robert William Stone and her daughter Laurel Osuna from Walnut Creek. She is survived by four sons, Gerry Stone of Fair Oaks, Dave Stone of Medford, Oregon, Tim Stone of Marysville, Brian Stone and wife Rhonda of Lincoln and a daughter, Jan Robbins-Worsnop and husband, Jamie Worsnop from Rescue, California. She leaves nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Fort Jones,

California on Friday, January 22, 2016 at 1pm with a Catholic Mass. Burial will follow at the Fort Jones Catholic Cemetery at 2:15pm. Family and friends are invited to the funeral and/or a reception celebrating her life at 3pm at the church's banquet hall. If you have pictures, a bulletin board will be available to share memories.

“ *Jan,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. Thank God we have the memories to keep inside our heart and mind. It sounded like she had a good life full of love so keep those good memories in the forefront. I wish I could get to the funeral on Friday, but have no one to cover work on that day. All our love to you and your family.*
