

Andrew "Buck" Don Skeahan

June 23, 1929 - March 6, 2020

Lifelong Siskiyou County resident Andrew Don "Buck" Skeahan passed away on March 6, 2020 in Yreka. He was 90 years old.

Buck was one of seven children born to John and Agnes Skeahan. His father was born in Ireland and his mother in California. Buck worked as a logger for over 50 years, and was an avid fisherman and hunter. He could either be found on the Klamath River on the bank somewhere or in his drift boat with one of his multitude of friends.

Buck was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years, Joyce Skeahan in 2007 and his son, Greg Skeahan last year. Buck was also married to Grace Baker. Buck is survived by his sons, Mike Turnbow of Woodstock, Georgia and Jim Skeahan of Medford, Oregon; a daughter, Tanya Omlor of Medford; nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

I speak for the entire family when I say "Buck, Dad, Grandpa, friend, you will be loved and missed."

No services are scheduled. Buck will be inurned at Henley-Hornbrook Cemetery.

“ I didn't know Buck very well, but our family did. Whenever his name came up in conversation, it meant experience, knowledge, great neighbor and friend. I know he helped our family in many ways as we lived just slightly northwest of his own home in Hornbrook. Based on what my my grandmother, Grace Quigley, mother, Elaine Metzen, and brother, Dan Metzen said, Buck was a great guy who offered his help to us in many ways. For me, I give him the upmost respect and my sincere condolences go out to his family.
