“ I remember the first day Andrew came to work at the Klamath Basin Refuge, the summer of 2015. Shy yet humble, he grew from a young boy to a great young man, polite, hard working and most of all he could make you smile just by talking with him. We had some great conversations about a lot of different things, but one memory will always stick with me : How much he loved the community of Tulelake. I miss him, he helped my husband and I build a fence a few weeks back at our place in Malin, we talked, and laughed and had a great time. I'm thankful for that time and for Andrew coming into our lives. I'll always think of Andrew as one of my own kids. Randy and Anna you raised such a wonderful young man, it was a pleasure getting to know him. You are in my prayers.
