

Annette Marie DuJardin

February 2, 2014

Annette Marie DuJardin, former Yreka resident and most recently of Medford, OR, peacefully departed her earthly life early Sunday morning, February 2, 2014, after declining health over the past several years. She was the daughter of the late Oliver and Anna Boucher of Fitchburg, MA. She met & married her husband, Joseph E. DuJardin, in 1960 and spent the next 20 years of her life traveling to various parts of the world as a loving army wife, adventuresome enough to go on an African safari and adapt to foreign cultures she was exposed to. After retirement, they relocated to Yreka and purchased their first permanent home. Annette was a fun loving person, a devoted wife, she especially enjoyed being with people and riding roller coasters. Annette had a giving heart, and was a much loved sister and daughter to the entire DuJardin family. She greatly surprised everyone when she became an avid quilter later in life, a hobby she truly enjoyed, and lovingly blessed her family & friends with her creations.

Annette was preceded in death, just 2 ½ weeks prior, by her beloved husband, Joseph, of 54 years, parents Oliver & Anna Boucher, sisters Evelyn and Loretta, and her husband's parents. She is survived by nieces, Cindy Ebenal, Maureen Campbell, their spouses & children, also Janet and Larry Hartzell, Jim and Linda DuJardin, Jane DuJardin, Jay and Gail DuJardin, along with numerous nieces and nephews and many good friends. Annette will be missed by all who knew and loved her and are comforted by knowing she has joined her beloved Joe.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, February 5, 2014 at 1:00 p.m. at Anna Maria Creekside, 822 Golf View Dr., Medford, Ore. The Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Wednesday, February 12, 2014 at 12:00 Noon in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka. Burial will follow, next to Joe, in the Evergreen Cemetery in Yreka.
