

Annie Winifred Ledbetter

June 12, 1927 - February 13, 2017

Longtime Siskiyou County resident, Annie Winifred Ledbetter passed away peacefully at her home in Yreka in the early morning hours of Monday, February 13, 2017.

Annie was born on June 12, 1927 in Hendersonville, North Carolina to Henry and Margarie Cagle. Annie moved to Yreka in 1950. She was a former member of the Yreka Nazarene Church, and she spent over 20 years as a server and a chef in several restaurants in the area. She also took her hospitality home, where she was known for hosting friends, both hers and her children's, and feeding everyone who walked through her door. Annie loved going to casino's and playing the slots, especially at the Nugget in Reno. She also loved garage sales, and had a reputation of talking prices down to unrealistic levels. In her younger days, Annie and her husband, William, enjoyed going out dancing on Friday and Saturday nights; as well as taking trips to the river whenever they had the chance.

Annie's greatest fulfillment came from her friends and her family.

Annie was preceded in death by her husband, William David Ledbetter, who passed away in 1978; a son, Greg, who passed away in 2016; and her siblings and parents. She is survived by her children, Joe Ledbetter of Washington, Sylvia (Martin) Gallagher of Yreka, Haskell (Marsha) Ledbetter of Vacaville, and Sue (Sam) Avila of Oakley; she is also survived by her 16 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

A funeral service for Annie will be held on Saturday, February 25, 2017 at 10:30 a.m. at Girdner Funeral Chapel in Yreka, with burial to follow in Evergreen Cemetery.
