

Annie Jean Smallwood

February 15, 1933 - August 24, 2013

Annie Jean Smallwood, 80, of Yreka passed away on August 24, 2013 after a short battle with cancer.

Jean was born in Wickes, Arkansas on February 15, 1933 and moved to California when she was 11 years old. Jean married Melvin Smallwood on January 2, 1953, and in 1955, they made their home in Yreka. Jean and Mel were married 49 years.

Jean was a sales clerk at JC Penney for over 30 years. She enjoyed playing golf, walking in the evening, lunching with the "Penney" girls and attending/conducting yard sales. She always enjoyed spending time and laughing with her family.

Jean is survived by sisters, Bonnell Taylor and Dymple McCormick; brothers, Dale and Don Richardson; daughters and spouses; Linda and Stanley King, Brenda and Tom Gabel, Jan and Ron Fraser, five grandchildren and nine great grandchildren (three of whom are due in November) and many nieces and nephews.

Jean is preceded in death by her parents Homer and Tacie Cook Richardson and her husband, Mel.

There will be no visitation, but there is a graveside funeral service at 1pm on August 29, 2013 at Evergreen Cemetery in Yreka. After the service, a celebration of life will be at Shasta Valley Golf Course in Montague.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to a charity of their choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Prayers and Peace to Jean's family. She was such a sweet lady. Always had a smile on her face. She will truley be missed.

Dee Langlo - August 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM