

Anthony William Kast

December 13, 1942 - September 18, 2012

Anthony William Kast, a 69 year old Scott Valley resident, passed away at his home on Tuesday, September 18, 2012.

Tony was born on December 13, 1942 in Los Angeles to George and Catherine Kast, where he attended Belmont High School and then USC School of Engineering, receiving a Bachelors of Science. Tony was a registered civil engineer and worked as a licensed land surveyor for over 50 years.

For the last thirteen years Tony lived in Quartz Valley with his wife Deborah, and they enjoyed working on construction projects together. Tony was known to spend his time helping others in need. He also looked forward to visiting his children and grandchildren in Hawaii and Colorado. In his free time, he listened to classical music, read books, watched boxing matches with his friends, challenged his grandkids and their friends to games of pool, and played with his barn cats. Tony also enjoyed driving his bulldozer around his property and cutting down trees for firewood.

He is loved and survived by his wife Deborah of Quartz Valley and his children; Michael and Ja Kast of Wailua, HI, Peter and Eriko Kast of Honolulu, HI, Cyndi Kast-Dominguez of Louisville, CO, Clifford Berry of Montague, CA, Andy and Kerri Berry of Lower Lake, CA, and Katie Ringrose of Davis, CA; his brother David Kast and his wife Audrey of Wausau, WI, his sister-in-law Darlene Eddinger and her husband Steve of Healdsburg, CA; and his grandchildren: Mikala, William, Karin, Kai, Jackie, Alex, Austin, Claire and Dylan along with numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorial Scholarship donations may be made in memory of Anthony Kast to Etna High School for students pursuing careers in Civil Engineering or Land Surveying.

A graveside service will be held at 2pm on Saturday, September 22, 2012 at the Fort Jones Cemetery. A gathering and potluck will follow at the Fort Jones Community Center.
