

Barbara Jean Hager

January 15, 1932 - January 2, 2012

Barbara Jean Hager passed peacefully away on January 2, 2012 at her home with her husband, Greg Hager, at her side. She was born January 15, 1932 in Fort Wayne, Indiana where she joined her parents Grant and Leverna Huff and her adopted sister, Ellen. In 1950, she graduated from Northside High School and married her husband of 61 years, Gregory Hager. A year later she had their first child, Kathleen. Seven years later, they had their second child, Steven. The four of them moved to Simi Valley, California in 1961, where they had their last child, Cindy. She was always involved in the kids lives and schools and never missed any of their functions. After all of their children moved out, they moved to Lancaster, CA. They then continued north and moved to Yreka in 1998, where they presently reside.

Barbara loved a good joke, having fun, and being with all of her friends and family. She enjoyed playing cards and Yahtzee, along with reading and cooking. She is survived by her husband Greg Hager and their three children: Kathleen Collins, Steven Hager and wife Lisa Hager, and Cindy Day and her husband Rick Day . Her grandchildren include, Katherine, Tiffany, Nicholas, and Dominick Dicus, Grant Hager, Marissa Janz, and Cassie Day. Also, her close cousins Eugene, Christine, Christopher, and Scott Atkison. And of course, her many friends close and far away.

Everyone that is part of her loving family and friends will miss her greatly.

There will be a memorial service held at the Montague Methodist Church at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 7th. We know that when she left to be with our lord that her father Grant Hager and her beloved Aunt Dorothy were waiting for her. Barbara lived a great life, and her memory will be cherished in the hearts of many
