

Becky Joy Young-Moore

February 16, 1952 - April 8, 2016

Becky Joy Young passed away at her home near Callahan on April 8, 2016. Born on Feb. 16, 1952, in Minot, North Dakota, to Dalhart R. and Darlene J. Eklund, she was known to her friends as Rebecca. She married Richard S. Moore in June 29, 1998.

Her working career started with babysitting and cleaning houses. She graduated from Klamath Union High School in Klamath Falls, Oregon, and earned her RN in nursing from Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls and later completed her bachelor's degree in nursing.

In 1970, she married Steven C. Young and he served in the Air Force for 25 years. During that time Becky followed her husband to different places, nursing, volunteering, teaching and raising her family. Due to eyesight problems, she retired from nursing in 1993 and moved to Callahan in 1997.

Hiking, raising and identifying flowers, making jewelry and spending time with her dogs were her passion. She was experiencing a new found interest, the computer, and so enjoyed tutoring her grandson Desten. She kept close contact with her family and friends.

Becky was preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Kristy Lynn Kalustian; and her husband of 27 years, Steven C. Young.

She is survived by her three children: Jennifer J. Jesion (husband Keogh) of Modesto, California; Megan E. Moquera (husband Thalvick) of Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; and Steven C. Young of Modesto, California; sister, Lori Biehl (husband Dennis) of Pittsburg, California; brothers, Buck Eklund (wife Kim) of Bay Point, California and Tim Eklund (wife Joanie) of Manteca, California; as well as eight nieces and nephews and four grandchildren.

Many thanks to all her friends who gave her so much help and support through the years.
