

Betty Joan Carrier

December 18, 1932 - July 23, 2024

Betty Joan Davis Carrier of Little Shasta Valley passed away peacefully at Madrone Hospice House in Yreka, California on July 23, 2024.

Betty was born in Yreka in 1932, grew up on the Davis family ranch, in Little Shasta Valley, helping with cattle operations, and graduated from San Jose State University with a degree in interior design.

After college, Betty worked in San Francisco at a department store before joining the Forest Service where she met her husband, Jim Carrier, on the Klamath River. Betty and Jim lived in various towns on the Klamath and Trinity Rivers and had their two sons, John and Mark. The family then moved to Foresthill, CA.

The family relocated back to the Davis Ranch in 1983 where Betty joined many organizations, including the Historical Society, Hospital Guild, Welcome Wagon, Trail Riders, Cattlewomen, among others. During this time she was the valley Avon Lady, where she stayed connected to so many people in the community. She rekindled old friendships and fostered many new ones and loved them all.

In her younger years, Betty created many oil paintings of wildlife and nature, and loved making stained glass creations, as well as a few quilts.

Betty is survived by her two sons, John and Mark, and two grandsons, Michael and Tyler.

A celebration of life will be held at the Little Shasta Church on September 13th at 1:00 pm. Food and drinks will be provided after the ceremony at the Tablerock Ranch.

Tribute Wall

FH

“ Betty and I shared a love of reading which was the start of a sweet friendship. Over the years, we shared and exchanged many books. Thank you, Betty, for the good memories. Francine Hahn

Francine Hahn - September 15, 2024 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ So sorry for the loss of your mom John and Mark. She was the salt of the earth. Hard working, tough, and loved her sweet boys. She was involved in the communities she lived in and made a difference! Sending you much sympathy.

Lyna Black - July 28, 2024 at 12:00 AM

AC

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Girdner Funeral Chapel

A Memorial Tree was planted for Betty Joan Carrier - July 26, 2024 at 12:00 AM