

Betty Jane Hancock

October 25, 1925 - September 26, 2023

Betty Jane Hancock, also known as Eddie Lou Metcalf, was born October 25, 1925 in Camp Springs, TX. She passed away on September 26, 2023 at her home in Yreka.

Memorial services are pending. One service will be held at Montague United Methodist Church, where she was a member. An additional service will be held at North Hall in Sacramento.

Betty was predeceased by her granddaughter Carmen Gillentine and great-granddaughter Shaylynn Hancock. She is survived by: seven children - Sam, Herb E., Rev. David, Tim, and Marc Gillentine, Leah Schwab, and Billie Stillman; ten grandchildren - Emmanuel, Herb M., Clint, Shawna, and Brion Gillentine, Jerod and Eli Schwab, David Hancock, Elisabeth Jones, and J.C. Russo; 12 great-grandchildren - Vonnie, Anthony, Tyler, Dana, and Colton Gillentine, Chelsea and Mitchell Hancock, Nick, Samantha, Angelina, Alex, and Khalen Russo; two great-great-grandchildren - Levi and Millie Gillentine; many in-laws, and a host of friends. Betty was a dedicated mother and matriarch, a professional chef, a church leader, and an outspoken ally. She was a joyous and dynamic woman who was a beloved friend to any who knew her. Betty was an alcoholic, but thrived and found community during her 27 years of sobriety.

Tribute Wall

AH

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Girdner Funeral Chapel

A Memorial Tree was planted for Betty Jane Hancock - October 17, 2023 at 12:00 AM