

Betty Jean Stringfellow

January 27, 1927 - February 5, 2014

Betty Stringfellow passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 7, 2014 in Weed.

Betty was born in Anthony, New Mexico to William and Donnie Jones on January 27, 1927. She married Wendell Stringfellow on December 24, 1945; they lived in Chico and later moved to Red Bluff where they raised their family. Betty was an instructor for the Lariat Bowl Youth Bowling league in Red Bluff in the 50's and 60's and a member of Beta Sigma Phi for over 50 years in the Red Bluff and Yreka areas. Betty was also known for being a seamstress and making lots of costumes for dance recitals as well as being a team mom for youth baseball.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Wendell, in 1995. She is survived by her daughter Helen Blackston of Montague, son, Donald Stringfellow of Grenada and brother and sister-in-law, Bob and Ann Jones of Chico, 4 grandchildren Jeni deOng, Chuck deOng, Amy deOng and Haley Stringfellow and 4 great grandchildren.

Betty was a very busy lady and very much loved by her family. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family.

No Services are scheduled. There will be a Burial in Chico Cemetery. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family.
