

Birdie Bell Coleman

March 9, 1929 - October 26, 2013

Birdie Bell Coleman passed peacefully at Shasta View Nursing Center in Weed, California on October 26, 2013. She is now with the Lord Jesus Christ. Birdie was 84 years old.

Birdie was born in Overland Park, Missouri on March 9, 1929. She married Donald Ready in 1953 and later married Jerry Coleman. She was very active in the March of Dimes for many years, even receiving the Key to the City of Anaheim, California. Birdie was also involved with the PTA and was a girl scout leader. In 1973 she moved to Weaverville and worked at Timber Lodge and the Gables until retirement.

Birdie was preceded in death by her parents, Commodore and Viola Dennis, a brother, Howard Dennis, her husband, Jerry Coleman and a granddaughter, Amanda Marquard. She is survived by her daughter, Cindy Small and her husband David of Hornbrook; three grandchildren, Stacy Muelrath of Missouri, Stephani Marquard of Yreka and David C. Small and his wife Erykah of Montague; four great grandchildren, Kenny Muelrath of Fort Jones, Amanda Holmes of Missouri, Breanna Holmes of Yreka and Drake Small of Montague; one great great granddaughter, Maddison Muelrath of Fort Jones; a sister, Stella Perez; two nephews, David and Mark of San Bruno, and all the loving staff of Shasta View Nursing Center.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. The family asks that any donations be made to the Shasta View resident activities, 445 Park Street, Weed, CA 96094.
