

Carolyn Grace Fletcher

April 23, 1937 - November 3, 2012

Carolyn Grace Fletcher entered into rest on November 3, 2012. She was born on April 23, 1937 at Stanford, California and was raised in Los Altos, California. Carolyn attended University of Washington and Sacramento State College. She worked for Elk Grove School District and was a consultant for Sacramento County Social Services. Carolyn was also a Senior Trainer for the Child Welfare League of America, Washington DC.

She is survived by her beloved husband Delbert, three daughters, Kristin Ryan (John) of Cohasset, MA, Katrina Schlyer (Kurt) of Leavenworth, WA, and Kamdin Dixon (Wilbur) of Walnut Grove, California. She has two stepsons. The loves of her life were her grandchildren, Blair, Athena, Magnus, Karlson, Nicholas, Hans, Kelly and Boden. She is also survived by her only sister, Lorraine Mullen (John) of Bodega bay, California and two nieces and a nephew. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Due to her wishes, a private service will be held in Dayton, Washington.

If you please, donations may be made to Fairchild Medical Center, 444 Bruce St., Yreka, California, 96097.