

Carolyn Kay Hall

September 11, 1957 - March 26, 2024

Lifelong Siskiyou County resident Carolyn Kay Hall passed away on March 26, 2024 at her Fort Jones home following her battle with breast cancer. She was 66 years old.

Carolyn was born in Yreka on September 11, 1957. She graduated from Yreka High School in 1976. She worked as a waitress and a bank teller. She had a love for rocks, crafting, animals, dancing and splitting kindling. She will forever be known for her beautiful smile and contagious laugh.

Carolyn is survived by her husband, Glenn Hall; daughters Julie Hall and Renae Snell; and two grandchildren, Sage and Nash Snell. She is also survived by her mother, Winnie Florian, and siblings Nancy Holdener, Rick Robinson, John Robinson, Davey Miller and Marilyn Carnes.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, May 11, 2024 at 11:00 AM at the Etna City Park. Please bring a dish to share along with your stories of Carolyn.
