

Cledith Earl Davenport

February 28, 1921 - December 31, 2012

Cledith Earl "Clete" Davenport left this earth on December 31, 2012 to join his wife Sue Davenport.

Clete was born in Janesville, California on February 28, 1921 and married Sue on September 21, 1947. They became self employed as a logging truck driver and grocery store owners. After the sale of the grocery store, they moved to Fort Jones and created the Heart D Cattle & Guest Ranch. In 1976, he retired from the ranch and did some part time packing with horses and mules.

Clete is survived by six children, 17 grandchildren, and a foster brother. At his request, there will be no services.

Donations can be made on his behalf to Madrone Hospice, 255 Collier Circle, Yreka, CA 96097 or the Back Country Horsemen at www.bchcalifornia.org
