

Dale E. Brininstool

August 7, 1945 - December 11, 2015

Dale Brininstool, age 70, of Hornbrook, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, December 11, 2015 at Fairchild Medical Center in Yreka.

Dale was born on August 7, 1945 in Everett, Michigan to Clyde and Grace Brininstool. In 1974, Dale married Sharon Hughes in Las Vegas, Nevada. The couple made their home in Southern California, and Dale worked as a mechanic at an automotive company, in a machine shop, and as a gas station attendant. In 2005, the couple retired and moved to Happy Camp, where they lived for several years before making the move to Hornbrook. Dale loved to watch wrestling on TV, and loved to deer hunt with his best friend, LD. Even during retirement, Dale continued to work odd jobs around the area, especially if it involved being outdoors, as Dale loved the out of doors the most.

Dale is survived by his wife of 41 years, Sharon; his sons, Timmy of Florida and Dale, Jr. of Michigan; 4 stepchildren, Roy Tietjen, Gene Tietjen, and Christina McManus, all of Southern California, and Thomas Tietjen of Hornbrook; 3 sisters, Joyce, Gladys, and Louise; his brother, Kenith; 9 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren.

No funeral services are planned for Dale at this time.
