“ Hey Daniel--

You will truly be missed. You shared so much of your life with me. I was looking forward to spending time with you as we grew into old welder farts. I will never forget the great times we shared at work and the late nights welding and talking about life. I will miss hearing from you and seeing the pictures of your work that you were so proud to be a part of. I could always depend on you. I will miss your stories and sharing the Giants with you. I love you like a brother.

“ Daniels smile and silly laugh is what I will remember the most. He would always listen when people would talk to him looking you in the eye and making you feel important. He never judged anyone and was always very available to help how ever he could in any situation. I loved Daniel his smile lit up the room. We shared so much in common and had a tremendous love and faith for his lord and savior, his family and life. No matter what struggles he had that never ever left him...ever. I was one that was truly blessed to have his presence touch my life!

“ Daniel and I met in 1998 via a call-in show on a country radio station in the SF Bay Area and married six months later. Our song was "Meet in the Middle" by Diamond Rio, which pretty much was a theme of our sixteen year relationship and marriage. No matter how hard or difficult life was, we had a bond that could not be broken. The world has lost a very talented and loving man... I have lost my husband, my love & closest friend. I will always love you Daniel. See you when I get there.... your "so sunny".
