

Darlene Vivian Sheffield

September 2, 1927 - July 27, 2015

Darlene Vivian Sheffield passed away unexpectedly on July 27, 2015 in Fort Jones. She was 87 years old.

Darlene was born on September 2, 1927 to Marvel and Nellie Scott in Lebanon, Oregon. She lived in many places in Oregon and California growing up. She moved to Scott Valley about 1943 where she graduated from Etna High School. Darlene married her high school sweetheart, Elwood Sheffield on August 1, 1946. They spent the next 50 years together in Fort Jones.

Darlene owned a ceramic shop which she ran in Etna for many years. She was an avid knitter and crocheter and she loved making sweaters for her great grandchildren.

Darlene is preceded in death by her husband of 50 years and her parents. She is survived by her daughter, Lorraine (Bruce) Hurlbut of Etna, California; son, Kenneth (Liliana) Sheffield of Smyrna, Tennessee; sister, Dolores Tozier of Fort Jones, California; granddaughters, Beth (Brian) Lee of Merlin, Oregon, Carol (Scott) Hirsche of Payson, Utah, Sarah Hurlbut of Etna, California, Carrie (Ben) Saunders of Logan, Utah, Brandy (Nick) Yates of Tennessee and Dénisse (Dennis) Edwards of Tennessee and great grandchildren, Joshua, Nathaniel and Grace Lee, Geddy Hirsche, Addison, Alyssa, Audrey and Ava Yates and Lincoln Edwards. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service for Darlene will be held at the Fort Jones Masonic Hall on Monday, August 3rd at 3:00 pm.

“Darlene and I graduated from Etna High School in 1944. We were friends then and through these 71 years. She was a prize winner with her sewing, crocheting and knitting. She loved giving these to her children and all the :“grands”. We will surely miss her in our lives.
