“ To the Tuggle family my name is Herbert Johnson and I am very sorry about your loss. Sgt. Tuggle and I served together at Beale AFB and then met again at Binh Thuy Vietnam. I was very happy to see him when I arrived in Vietnam because I knew he was an excellent leader and cared about his troops. I am sure he will be missed dearly. We even talked on the phone after many years had passed since we were together in the Nam. May God's blessings be with the family.

“ It is always hard to hear about the passing of someone you know, but hearing about the passing of Darryl was particularly sad for me. Darryl was unique and he was truly one of a kind. My dad always teases me and tells me that "they broke the mold for real men back in 1943." When I think about Darryl, I realize that it just might be true. I was always mesmerized by Darryl's energy, quick wit, class and kindness. He was a great friend to my father and the epitome of a gentleman to my mother and I. We will mourn the loss of Darryl for a lifetime. My father will miss his weekly phone calls and the good humor, companionship and loving jousting of a very good friend. My love and prayers go out to Andree and her family.
