

David Andrew Stein

November 28, 1966 - September 12, 2024

David Andrew Stein was born on November 28, 1966 in Encino, California, and was raised there. He was the youngest child of Robert and Claire Stein. David lived briefly in Palmdale, and attended Antelope Valley College in Lancaster. He first discovered Scott Valley while working with the California Conservation Corps from 1987 to 1989. David and his mother, Claire, moved to Scott Valley in 1996. After living briefly in Greenview, they made their home in Etna.

On September 12, 2024, David suffered a medical emergency and was transferred to a Sacramento hospital where he passed away. David leaves behind his loving sons, Joseph and Roman. They were his life. He is also survived by his siblings: Carol (John Bennett), Robert (Shoshana), Cynthia (Robert Rowell), and James (Leonor). He also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, and many very good friends.

He left us all too soon. Rest in peace.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, September 27, 2024 at 11:00 AM at the Scott Valley Berean Church in Etna. Interment will follow at the Etna Cemetery.

“ David was most respectful & kind to me. I enjoyed our friendly & amiable conversations, sometimes not always agreeing, but respectful. David was a friend & I will miss him. He passed too soon. My most sincere condolences to his family.
