

Delores (Freshour) Joann Wardrip

December 20, 1938 - December 29, 2016

Delores Joann (Freshour) Wardrip passed away on December 29, 2016 at her home in Scott Valley. She was 78 years old.

Delores was born on December 20, 1938 in Yreka to John and Gladys Freshour. Delores loved animals and long drives in the country. When she was younger, she loved horse packing trips and family hunting trips in the Marble Mountains.

Delores is survived by a daughter, Cindy Bladt and her husband, Jack; a son, Dennis Clark and his wife, Stacy; a brother, Sam Freshour; four grandchildren, John Warren, Dillon Clark, Joshua and Jessica Bladt; two great granddaughters, Alexandria Chase and Abigail Warren; a cousin, Alice Perkins-Freshour; and a son-in-law, Skip Warren. Delores was preceded in death by her parents, Johnny Freshour and Gladys Peterson; a step-father, Pete Peterson; two husbands, Norman Clark and Gary Wardrip; and a daughter, Carrie Warren.

No services are planned.

Tribute Wall

SW

“ Deloris was a hard worker, fun to be around, and a great mother in law, going to miss you may you rest in peace. ”

Skip Warren - January 08, 2017 at 09:57 PM

DL

“ Delores always introduced herself as, "I'm Delores" but we all knew her as "Sis" her whole life. May she rest in peace! Gone too soon! Beloved Sister, cousin, Mother, grandmother. ”

Donna LaMarr - January 06, 2017 at 12:10 PM

DL

“ Donna LaMarr lit a candle in memory of Delores (Freshour) Joann Wardrip ”

Donna LaMarr - January 06, 2017 at 12:08 PM

“ Cindy Clark-Bladt lit a candle in memory of Delores (Freshour) Joann Wardrip ”

Cindy Clark-Bladt - January 05, 2017 at 05:25 PM