

Donald James Hannon

November 13, 1936 - November 17, 2014

Longtime Siskiyou County resident Donald James Hannon passed away at his home in Klamath River on November 17, 2014. He was 78 years old.

Don was born on November 13, 1936 in Brooklyn, New York. He grew up in Seaford, Long Island, New York and attended high school in Amityville where he excelled in wrestling as a “lightweight.” Don served in the U.S. Army in the late 1950's. He was a graduate of Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York. Don worked as a surveyor in the Los Angeles area, and once experienced a mudslide into his Santa Monica apartment. He moved to Northern California and was employed with the U.S. Forest Service. He was happy to live in Northern California, and had many friends.

Don is survived by his brother, Robert Hannon of New York, and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He was Godfather to several.

No services are scheduled.

“ Condolences to the Hannon family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says Jehovah God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.
