

Donald Richard Howerton Sr.

February 20, 1944 - February 24, 2021

Donald R. Howerton Sr. has crossed over to meet The Great Spirit. Don died peacefully at home with his family beside him.

Donald was born on February 20, 1944 in Yreka. He lived in Siskiyou County for most of his life. Don worked for 40 years in logging. He enjoyed building roads with his CAT and working outside was a great pleasure for him. Don loved cutting wood, fishing, and he was an avid hunter. He also enjoyed raising animals and growing his garden. He was very good at preserving food as part of his native traditions. Don spent most of his life living from the land. He is Karuk and Shasta Indian, and very proud of his heritage.

Don served four years in Vietnam, and was proud to serve his country.

Donald was preceded in death by his grandmother, Edna Burcell of Etna; his parents, Mary and Harry; his sister, Mary; a great uncle Fred Ruff, and his grandsons Donald "Pook" and Derek "Hawk" Howerton.

Donald is survived by his wife, Jacklyn Howerton; his children, Tammy (Gabriel) Jaime of Greenview, Donald (Lenni Kaler) Howerton Jr. of Klamath Falls, Ora Bauer, and Kip Howerton. Don is also survived by his grandchildren David, Apryl, Ryan, Julian, Ruben, Darren, Sebastian, and Naomi; and great grandchildren Dani, Kaleb, Harlee, and Eagle.

No services are schedule for Don at this time.
