

Donald Voyles

January 14, 1941 - June 23, 2013

Donald Voyles, a 26-year resident of Siskiyou County, passed away on June 23, 2013 at Fairchild Medical Center. Donald was born in Dinuba, California to Luther and Inez Voyles in 1941. In 1987 he moved to Siskiyou County, where he met his wife, Dolores. The two were wed in 1989 in Happy Camp. Donald worked in logging in his younger days, and more recently worked as a maintenance engineer for the Karuk Tribe. Don loved mining, history and antiques. He enjoyed building things and helping people: two traits that served him well, as he often helped people move, build, and remodel. Don enjoyed casinos, dancing the jitterbug with his wife, poetry, and pets. Don is survived by his wife, Dolores, and his mother, Inez, of Happy Camp. He is also survived by his step-children: Sharon McClure and Debbie Wallace, Randy White of Happy Camp, Dennis White of Alaska, Allison Brown of Happy Camp, and Albert Horton of Montana. Don is also survived by his brother Darrell of Washington, Utah, as well as 16 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Don was very loved, and will be very missed by everyone he touched in his life. There will be a Celebration of Life for Don on Saturday, June 29 at 11 am at the Happy Camp Grange, with a potluck lunch to follow. Friends and family are welcome. Girdner Funeral Chapel is handling the arrangements, and online condolences may be made at www.girdnerfuneralchapel.com.
