Donovan Adam Kaipalohaokalahui Santos
32 Years, 1 Month, 16 Days And 1 Minute

Donovan Adam Kaipalohaokalahui Santos, 32, of Yreka, made his way home to our Lord and Savior on December 14, 2019 at Mercy Medical Center Redding due to cancer. His death came as a shock and heartbreak to those who loved and cared for him. Donovan's smile could take one's breath away. He had the personality of an angel and many recall him being the kindest person they had ever met.

Donovan was born October 28, 1987 to parents Patricia Jean Muller and Edwin LK Santos Jr. at Kapiolani Women and Children Hospital in Honolulu, HI at 12:19AM. Growing up Donovan was a member of the Yreka Soroptimists, attended Yreka High School and later College of the Siskiyou's majoring in business with the aim of transitioning into the pharmaceutical field.

Donovan also had a talent for cooking and found spending long hours employed in food prep creative and stimulating. In his free time, Donovan was an avid gamer. His favorites were Kingdom Hearts and Final Fantasy . He enjoyed watching Japanese anime and had a broad taste in music including rock, rap, J-Pop and Hawaiian music.

Donovan leaves behind parents Patricia Jean and Hobert Jason McGuire; younger sister Dayna Marie Kehaulani, grandmother Louise P. Ray, uncle Gene Jr. and Stacy Muller; aunties Darlene and Chet Moleta, Hilary and Ernel Santos, Uncle Billy and Ricky and many cousins in Hawaii.

Donovan is also survived by his father, Edwin Jr., grandfather, Edwin Sr. Aunty Eleanor, Jon Lopez in Idaho, Michael Bryant in West Virginia, cousins on Maui, family in San Francisco, and many friends in Yreka.

Donovan is in the loving arms of his grandfather Gene Muller Sr. older sister, grandmother Theresa Santos and the rest of his family in heaven.

We love you Ku' uipo, watch over us Donny Boy!

No services are planned at this time, A Celebration of Life ceremony will be held at a future date. Condolences to the family may be shared at www.girdnerfuneralchapel.com
