

Doris Marie Kyle

September 24, 1940 - February 28, 2019

78 year-old Yreka resident, Doris Marie Kyle, passed away peacefully the morning of February 28, 2019 at her home after a lengthy illness. She had been a Siskiyou County resident since 1981.

Doris was born on September 24, 1940 in Bottineau, North Dakota to Art and Gladys Naumann. She was the first of five children: Doris, Clarice, Clara, Art, and Joanne. After graduating high school, Doris attended nursing school at St. Andrews in North Dakota, which led to a 40+ year nursing career in locations such as Greeley, Colorado, El Cajon, California at the Veteran's Hospital, and the last 20 years at Siskiyou General and Fairchild Medical Center. She married James "Jim" Kyle on February 13, 1971, and they began their lives together. Doris' life was devoted to her work and meeting the needs of her patients. Outside of the medical field, Doris enjoyed traveling, reading, and spending time with her grandchildren and close friends.

Doris was preceded in death by her sister, Clara, her brother, Art, her parents, and her husband of 46 years, Jim.

Doris is survived by her daughter, Laura (Tim) Bynum and their son, Aden; a daughter, Joanne (Greg) Black and their daughter, Lilianna; and her siblings: Clarice Nickel of Minot, ND and Joanne Scott of Brandon, Manitoba, Canada.

A celebration of life for Doris will be scheduled at a later date. In lieu of flowers, online condolences may be made to Madrone Hospice, Inc., 255 Collier Circle, Yreka.

“ Dear Family,

My condolences to all of you. I had not seen Doris in many years. I learned to know her/her family when I taught in Kramer, ND. Her sister, Joanne, was my student (third grade). I also know Clarice/knew Art. Joanne and Clarice, my condolences to you, too. From what I am reading, Doris was a special person. This doesn't surprise me. :)
