

Dorothy "Dot" Jean Comer

December 10, 1930 - September 5, 2013

Dorothy Jean "Dot" Comer passed away in Medford, Oregon on September 5, 2013 at the age of 83. Dot was born on December 10, 1930 to Lee Calvin and Queen Annabel (Huey) Waddell, in Happy Camp. She attended Elementary School in several One-Room Schools along the Klamath River, with her Mother Queen as her teacher.

"Dot" was Daddy's Girl. In her younger years she hunted, fished, rode motorcycles, trained her hunting dogs and horses. Later in life, she continued riding and working with horses and was part of the Happy Camp 4H Horse program. She was a regular customer at the Frontier Café; the staff there watched out for her. Her Family lived in Edgewood during her High School years and she graduated from Weed High School. After high school she lived and worked in Oregon until retirement. Upon retiring, she moved back to Happy Camp with husband John Comer and together, with family and friends, they built a home on the property her family homesteaded many years ago. They named their little piece of heaven "East Fork Acres Ranch"; Dot loved it there.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lee and Queen; husband John Comer and uncles Major Huey, John "Joe" and Grover Waddell. She is survived by her son, Butch, of Portland, Oregon; sister, Le Hannsler; niece Stacy Smith; nephew, Scott Smith; cousins, Eddy Webb, Jimmy Goodwin, Jody, Jim, Vickie, Rob, Tom and Kerry Waddell and Best Friend Ever, Charlene. A family and close friend's memorial gathering will take place in a few weeks with the date to be announced later.
