

Earlene May Hiatt McBroom

July 5, 1930 - May 18, 2025

Born July 5, 1930 in Etna, Earlene May Hiatt McBroom passed away on May 18, 2025 in Medford, Oregon. Earlene was preceded in death by her husband Henry Chester McBroom. She is survived by her five children: Glenn, Dean (Kathy), Sally (Deano), Clint (Sophia) a sister, Jane Lord, and a brother, EJ Hiatt. Also, many grandchildren, great and great-great grandchildren.

She spent most of her married life on the Salmon River hunting, fishing, quilting, pie making and playing piano. She played the piano by ear, wrote many songs and played for many dances, sometimes with the piano in the back of a pickup. She was a lifelong member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, May 30 at 11:00 a.m. at the Etna Cemetery, with a luncheon reception to follow at the LDS Church in Etna.

“ I grew up on the Salmon River listening to Earlene and group play for the dances thru the 50's and 60's at the Forks. Such a joy and fun to listen to and watch. I am so sorry for you loss but so glad you had her love for all of those years. Great memories. God Bless, Barbara Lipke.
