“ When I was about eight years old, I stayed overnight with my grandma Jones. Early the next morning I was at the table starting to eat my hot cereal that she had made for me, that's when uncle Ed came in he said for me to look at something outside. When I turn back to get a bite of cereal I saw a worm in my cereal Uncle Ed laughed like hell and Grandma was really mad at him for putting it in my bowl. To this day, I am not fond of hot cereal .
