

Eva Ellen Michael

December 22, 1955 - February 7, 2025

Eva Michael passed away on February 7, 2025, at the age of 69.

Eva was loved by her children and her grandchildren, and by her husband.

She was a great mom and wife, and great person who would always help someone in need, regardless of how little she had. She was an amazing cook!

She will be dearly missed, and so will her food.

She loved us all to the moon and back!

No services are scheduled.

“ This obituary does not do my Mom Justice so here I go Eva was the kindest sweetest most giving soul you could ever meet.
Between her naivety over little things, the way she wouldn't let you cuss in her house because you didn't do that, the way she calls idgits and my daddy said she was kung fu trained with a frying pan.
She had a giant heart she loved to give. she helped kids while we were in school to read when their parents didn't. she fed kids on the neighborhood that their parents didn't. She never blinked an eye, she never asked for anything in return. and she certainly never made a scene about it. cuz we didn't do that. she was there for every broken heart, she was there for every scraped knee bruised elbow multiple. head injuries. she was there when we had our first babies she was there when we had our last. dropped everything for us every time she could she loved her five grandchildren with all of her heart and she loved her girls more than anything in the world her food was amazing it wasn't for her I don't think I could cook this good her beautiful auburn hair and hazel eyes are missed but there's going to be an obituary for This woman This is should be it little ones don't say enough I'm thankful we had her when we did
