

Frances J. Dawson

February 27, 1927 - October 1, 2010

Frances J. Dawson passed away on October 1, 2010 with her family at her side. She was born to Morgan and Winnifred Langley on February 27, 1926, in Watts, Oklahoma. She was very proud of her Cherokee Heritage.

Throughout her life, Frances was never afraid of hard work. The last job she held before she retired after 21 years, was a Certified Nurses Aid at Beverly Manor Convalescent Hospital. She enjoyed family, gardening, cooking, long Sunday drives and trips to Reno to try out her luck! Frances was a wonderful mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, she will be missed by everyone she ever knew and loved, especially by her little dog, Susie. Frances was preceded in death by her husband, Charles "Holley" Dawson on April 5, 2005. She is survived by her son, Ron Ruble and his wife Louise of Trenton, Texas, her three daughters, Kathy and her husband, Charles Hulseley of Roseville, California, Debora and her husband George Patti of Hornbrook and Charlene Briley of Yreka. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Chris and his wife, Tracy Hulseley of Castle Rock, Colorado, Sean and his wife, Genevieve Hulseley of Fair Oaks, California, Patrick Hulseley and his fiancée, Angie Xiong, Holley Morton and her fiancée, Josh Hudleson of Hornbrook, California. Frances's great grandchildren include; Hunter, Stone, Chase, Sidney, Shane Hulseley and Sierra and Makayla Morton; and brother in law, Jack Dawson and his wife, Clarene, of Fletcher, Oklahoma, and numerous nieces and nephews. A "Celebration of Life" will be held in the Spring, so that arrangements can be made and everyone who loved Frances, would be able to attend. Our special

"Thanks" goes out to all the staff at Fairchild Medical Center and the Madrone Hospice. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family.
