“ Rest Easy Frederic, we all are going to miss you on your daily walks. You always had a story to tell or just a kind hello. You always gave a wave when I would pass by wherever you were. Going to miss seeing you everyday! I will always remember your smiling face and your kindness.

“ Keemeych coo- Fred, was always kind. I had never seen him frustrated or angry just because, if you had done something to Fred or near Fred that disrupted his spirit, you definitely had it coming. It was a beautiful character trait that Fred possessed. I would see Fred from time to time at the Ceremonies. Fred always knew he had a home. He always knew that he had a place amongst his people. He treasured his family, it was his highest honor and he loved them deeply. I remember on summer in particular, it was a rough year for the ceremonies. It was very hot and the fall also had come early but Fred seemed to managed to be at each Pikiywash ceremony. Either he hitched a ride to Tisannik, walked down to Inaam, and made it to The Center of the World. Fred was a very strong singer and the character of his songs carried and echoed against the mountains. His prayer songs were good medicine and I'm forever grateful to have heard him sing. Before that I had never not heard him sing but after my ceremony family had taken to his kindness and his songs, He was always welcomed and honored when he came to our camps. Growing up in Happy Camp you always seem to find yourself staring to distance yourself from family members, However I never once knew of Fred's younger brother Keymech-Koo Sequoi doing that, he would always look out for his brother. The bond and the love that they had for each other was amazing. I hope that they are reunited, Dancing in full regalia smiling at one other for eternity. Forever may the rest in Paradise, Dancing in the Happy Hunting Grounds with the Old Ones.

“ I did not know Fred personally but when we were walking and he would pass by, I would always say hello to him, and he would reply politely hello or hi. We know his family and they have been very kind to us. Our condolences and prayers go out to the family 🥹🙏❤️

“ Frederic, your infectious humor and radiant spirit lit up every room and warmed even the coldest hearts. We won't see you walking pass our work about fifty times a day any longer or giving us countless smiles with each wave. But we'll remember all of these, cherishing the echoes of laughter you've left behind - our irreplaceable bundle of joy has exited the stage. The curtain may have fallen but your performance will always be encored in our hearts.

“ Fred, it seemed to never fail everytime my children and I rode the bike we would see you walking. You always said hello or gave us a passing wave. It became a normal for my boys to ask about you whenever we didn't see you during our rides around town. We will miss seeing you around. Rest In Peace Fredrick.....
