“ I remember Fred coming to a family reunion and bring thankful and happy that he was not only accepted by the family, but that he was loved by the family.
He was funny. I'm sorry that he's gone. I enjoyed visiting with him.

Fred will always be in our hearts as a kind, giving soul who made our lives richer for having known him. There was never anything you asked of him that he wasn't quick to cheerfully do. Kathy, we can never walk in your shoes on this new journey of your life, but we do bear with you your sadness and loss. May the Lord carry you with His grace.
