George "Pinkie" Tony Galea Sr., born in Qormi, Malta on April 24, 1941, passed away peacefully on February 12, 2017. His wife of 53 years Joanna "Tootsie" Galea will miss him dearly, her strength in caring for our father will be a strong memory to hold on to forever.

George's legacy continues through his four surviving children: Cynthia Galea Rose and husband, Joe, Francesca Galea Ford and husband, Dennis, Nina Norman and George Galea Jr. and wife, Kelly. Pinkie's surviving grandchildren are Bruno Saran, Angelo Saran, Karlee Rose, Mario Ford, Michael Ford, Alicia Norman, Reanna Norman, Brandon Jones, Colton Galea and Gavin Galea. Our departed sister, Anna Marie Galea Shami and her girls, Jasmin Shami and Jamilah Shami met George in Heaven with Nunna & Nunnu Bob, Gus, carmen and Rosie as well. Our dad was the oldest of 10 and is missed by his surviving siblings, Joe, Pauline, Aggie, MaryAnne and Manuel, their wives and husbands and many nieces and nephews join in continuing the legacy of Pinkie George Galea.

Dad is where the bar is always open, the music is loud, his singing on key and he'll never, ever forget mom wasn't a friend of the family!

Thanks to Madrone Hospice for their kind, amazing support you never knew you needed until you need them. They were a blessing!

Funeral services are scheduled for Saturday, February 18, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. at Girdner Funeral Chapel in Yreka. Burial will follow in the Henley-Hornbrook Cemetery in Hornbrook.
