

Grace Nydam

June 1, 1922 - March 15, 2016

Long time Big Springs resident, Grace Nydam, passed away on March 15, 2016 at Shasta View Nursing Center in Weed. She was 93 years old.

Grace was born in Leewarden, Netherlands on June 1, 1922 to Hendrik and Jantje DeGraaf. She married Fred Nydam in 1947, at which time they emigrated from the Netherlands to Southern California. The couple came to Big Springs in 1980.

Grace was a faithful member of the Big Springs Community Church. She loved the Lord deeply, and her greatest joys in her life were her family and grandchildren. She was a person who was gracious and hospitable to all who entered her home.

Grace was preceded in death by her husband, Fred. She leaves behind a daughter, Jennie Joling and son-in-law, Ken Joling Sr. of Big Springs; a sister, Ida Bisshop of the Netherlands; six grandchildren, Kenny Joling Jr. and his wife Shantel of Yreka, Brian Joling of Big Springs, Shaun Joling and his wife, Loray of Big Springs, Darin Joling and his wife, Toni of Grenada, Jessica Wallace and her husband, Thad of Mt. Shasta, Justin Joling and his wife, Jamie of Hornbrook; and 16 great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, March 22, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. at Big Springs Community Church in Big Springs, with Pastor Nollie Malabuyo officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Shasta View Nursing Home, 445 Park Street, Weed, CA, 96094.
