

Hal David Dill

March 11, 1951 - February 27, 2014

Hal David Dill passed away peacefully at his home in Montague on February 27, 2014, joining his mother Floy Dill, father Howard Dill and nephew Stewart Hedstrom.

Hal was born in Turlock CA. on March 11, 1951. Hal and his wife Becky moved to Siskiyou County in 1996.

The things that brought joy to Hal were his family, fishing, camping and community service. Hal loved helping others. His passion was photography and playing his Native flutes. He worked in auto body as a body and paint man for 42 years. He always had a positive attitude and an infectious smile. He is survived by his wife Becky Dill, daughter Amy Dill, sisters Donna Hedstrom and Wanda Slaven, extended family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

There will be a Celebration of Life on Sunday, April 27, 2014 at the Yreka Preservation Square at St. Marks in Yreka with the time to be set at a later date.

“ I was saddened to read of Hal's passing. I grew up w/him in Turlock and reconnected with him when I was the nurse taking care of his mother in Modesto. He was just such kind and special person. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Becky, I'm so sorry to hear of Hal's passing. He was a very good friend to me when we worked at Sheperd of God. He even brought his flute's to work and played for me. He always spoke highly of you and his dogs. Again he will be sorely missed by all.
