

James Edward Diemer

February 4, 1951 - October 31, 2012

James Edward Diemer passed away very peacefully at his home, after a brief battle with lung cancer, surrounded by his family on Wednesday, October 31, 2012. James was a farrier for the past 30 years as well as a partner with his dad, Charles Diemer, at Diemer Body Shop in Greenview.

James is survived by his parents, two brothers, two sons, one daughter, three grandchildren, and of course his beloved parrot, Bud, and beloved horse, Rocket. The family had a private Celebration of Life and requests any donations be made to the American Cancer Society in memory of James.
