

James "Jim" Keith Brewer

June 5, 1954 - April 1, 2017

Lifelong Etna resident, James Keith Brewer, passed away on April 1, 2017 at his home at the age of 62.

James was known to many as "Jim," and to a few as "Jimbo." He was born on June 5, 1954 to James and Maxine Brewer in Etna. Jim attended Etna High School, where he drove his '57 Chevy called "Half-breed," and upon graduation in 1972 he purchased a '72 pickup, which served as his hot-rod. Jim worked for Franklin Logging for a long time, and also worked for several other logging outfits as a yarder engineer. Jim enjoyed anything that involved logging, timber, and tree falling. He loved to go firewood cutting, deer hunting, and fishing – he was a true outdoorsman.

Jim was always up for a good party. In his youth, his Friday night activity often involved going to the top of Salmon Mountain, drinking, and listening to Wolfman Jack on the radio. Jim enjoyed trips to Sawyers Bar, where he had a cabin in which he stayed, and he always enjoyed woodworking, making assorted items, mostly birdhouses.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, James and Maxine. He is survived by his son, Jessie Brewer of Etna and Eureka; a brother, Charles Brewer of Etna; and many friends.

A potluck Celebration of Jim's Life (another of his good parties) will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. at the Callahan Grange in Callahan. Feel free to bring a dish and a few memories to share.

“ Our time here is evanescent! It's the only space you have to realize whatever it is that is beautiful, whatever is true, whatever is great, whatever is potential, whatever is rare, whatever is unique, in. It's the only space in one sequence of events.
