

Jan Colleen Stuart

December 6, 1951 - August 6, 2011

Longtime Seiad Valley resident Jan Colleen Stuart passed away August 6, 2011 as a result of a fire at her home near Seiad Valley. She was 59 years old. Jan was born December 6, 1951 in Carmel to Russel and Arlene Sweeney. She was raised in Sunnyvale and graduated from Fremont High School. In 1973 Jan married Joseph Stuart, and the family made their home in Seiad Valley.

Jan was a member of the Horse Creek Community Church and was involved with the Christian Women's Club. Whatever was needed by the church, she was there to help. She was a prayer warrior, and prayed for everyone. She was very involved with the community and her children's school.

Jan is survived by her husband, Joseph; three daughters, Christina Kimball of Modesto, Sandy Hansen of Redding and Amber Stuart of Seiad Valley; a brother, Michael Sweeney; and three grandchildren, Nathalie Hansen, Evan Kimball and Erica Hansen. Jan was preceded in death by a daughter, Andrea Stuart. For Jan, her family was her life.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, August 20, 2011 at 3:00 PM at the Horse Creek Community Church.
