

Jeanette Blake Nesbitt

September 26, 1932 - June 9, 2025

Jeanette Blake Nesbitt, lovingly referred to as Sissy, departed this life on Monday, June 9.

Born to Warren and Catherine Blake, she grew up surrounded by her siblings, Sy, Earl, Roy, Richard Carl, and Ethel. Jeanette and her husband, Pete Nesbitt, built a life together making homes in Klamath, Fort Dick, and Montague. They operated honey bee and asphalt businesses and raised three daughters, Dorothea, Lori, and Patty. After Pete's passing in 2009, Jeanette continued living in Montague until moving five years ago back to Klamath.

Jeanette was preceded in death by her beloved husband and by her siblings. Jeanette's memory will live on through her daughters, Dorothea Nesbitt of Elk Grove, Lori Nesbitt of Klamath, and Patty (Harry) Adams of Crescent City; six grandchildren: Lindsay (Chris) Crandall and two great-granddaughters, Chloe and Abby of Reno, Stephanie Youngdale of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, Amanda Youngdale of Portland, Trey Soder of North Dakota; Kenny Scammon of Cottonwood; and Tory Soder of Los Angeles.

Her love for her family and the impact she had on those who met her will never be forgotten.

A Celebration of Life is anticipated at a later time.

Tribute Wall

CT

“ Jeanette was my parent's neighbor for years and my dad nicknamed her "little shit" because of her fun loving personality. Jeanette was always a joy to be around. She will be deeply missed. To the day we meet again and we can catch up. My condolences go out to the family. Cindy Cox Towne

Cindy Towne - September 08, 2025 at 12:00 AM

AN

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Girdner Funeral Chapel

A Memorial Tree was planted for Jeanette Blake Nesbitt - September 04, 2025 at 12:00 AM