

Jeffrey David Morton

August 11, 1975 - August 6, 2017

Jeffrey David Morton came into this world on August 11, 1975 in Woodland, California. He passed away on August 6th, 2017 in Yreka, California. He was born to his parents, David and Shannon (Sabel) Morton.

Jeff, the oldest of three children lived with his family in Dixon through high school. He loved sports and was an excellent wrestler for Dixon High School.

Jeff was a man of many trades as a diesel mechanic, welder, Marine, hunter and avid fisherman. He especially loved fishing with his friends. Jeff was also a longtime fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He was known by all as John Wayne/Superman/ Peter Pan all rolled into one. His life was short but full. Jeff was a jokester, storyteller, adventurer, and protector with a huge heart. He helped anyone who needed it.

Jeff was predeceased by his paternal grandfather Virgil Morton and maternal grandparents Alberta (Thornburg) and William Sabel.

Jeff leaves behind his beloved son, Jacob as well as his parents, brother Scott, and sister Katey, as well as nieces (Aubrey, Emerald) and nephews (Casey, Nathan). He is also survived by his grandmother Eva Morton, uncle Harold Morton (both of Yreka) and uncle Patrick (Jennifer) Sabel, aunts

Kathryn (Bob) Reider and Kelley Stanfield and several cousins. He also leaves behind many wonderful friends.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
