“Brother came over to skip and linda davis to stay the night with me and we sat in my room and we started listening to music well the titanic song came on and I look at him and say Pink Chicken why u cryin he says I made myself cry I started to laugh the he looks back at me and says I bet you cant cry more then me. So I restart the song we sat up all night till 5:00 A.M the next morning trying to make ourselves cry to this song. I don't rmember who won but linda thought one of us pee'd the bed and Pinky to;d her it was me lol. I love u brother u were the closes brother to me growin up through grade school and all the way till we were out of highschool I don't know when our paths departed but u will always be right here with me in my heart where u allways where.

Love

Always

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I never had the privilege of meeting Joe, but I am sure that he has left wonderful memories for you to look back on and I know he will be deeply missed. As you reflect on your loss, please take comfort in the scripture at 2 Thessalonians 2:16,17. May God strengthen you and bring you comfort during this difficult time.

“ Blackhawk. I'll always remember you by how much we loved each other, you're contagious laugh and how only you could make me laugh even when i didn't want too. When you passed you took a big part of my heart that belongs to you only. I know now you're resting in peace. You know how much I've always loved you...Until me meet again honey...<3 <3
