“ John was one of my baking students. He was a sweet, kind, lovable kid with a heart way bigger than most. I was glad to have had him in my last class at OCCU. He helped make it special. He will be missed greatly by those that knew him and loved him.

“ Big john is and will always be apart of our family. Each of us Charles, little Chris, Angie, Bruce, Randy and I each loved, cared and wanted the best for John in all areas of his life. He was at our house often and called me Mah like the other kids who spent lots of time at our home. John so loved his mom, Lisa and little brother ever so dearly and would do anything for them. John would always say 'hey mah got any leftovers? and then would clean out the fridge like a bottom fish! His favorite dish I made was a throw together feed a lot of people dish which he named the 'Shitz times 9' which I will make to bring to the potluck in his memory. There are so many good and touching memories in which I could write a novel! I myself and our family will miss John dearly, his smile, tenderness, caring, and love for good food! May God wrap his loving arms around his family so that they are comforted through this time giving them peace and comfort that passes all human understanding. I believe that our John is looking down on each of us and knowing Big John I am sure he is sending thoughts of 'please try not to be sad be happy and remember that I love and care for my family and friends more than you will ever know!' We will miss and remember you always John! Our love and condolences are sent out to each family member and close friends who loved, cared for and will miss our Big John as much as we will!!!!

Peace out John and Rip,
Mah (Debi Hawkins-Haberman)

“ Big John was always great to be around. He was just the funniest, caring guy. He grew up with my little brothers, Charles and Chris so he was much like another little brother to me. I am so deeply saddestbut will always love and rememberthe best times. My condolences and prayers are with you during this time.
With love, Angie Gibbons
