“ Joe was a special man in my life. He took me in as if I was his own. He did things his way. He used to say "If you don't like me today, you won't like me tomorrow," He never cared what anyone thought. Thanks for all the great memories. Fish on!

“ Joe was such a wonderful, caring person and had a huge heart under his rough exterior. He was unique in not caring what others thought ever. He was persistent and never gave up at anything. He lived his life for Gina and loved her with everything. They shared such a great life together and had an incredible bond. My heart is just broken that he's gone and all the great times we all shared together. What a source of strength he was for me and was always ready to help when I needed it. You're with God now Joseph and at peace. I will always cherish you my friend forever. I love you so much and will miss you forever, Cogie xoxoxoxo

“ Joe was a great guy. I remember when my dad and I went over to their house when I was a little girl. He used to tease me that I was still sucking on my baby pacifier and he used call me "girly girl." God Bless Joe's caring soul and kind heart. RIP old family friend.
