

Joy Eloise McAboy

March 23, 1926 - September 27, 2014

Joy McAboy passed away peacefully at her home in Yreka on September 27, 2014. She was surrounded by her loved ones during her final days.

Joy was born in Hilt on March 23, 1926 to Jennie and Henley Clawson. Joy grew up in Hornbrook and graduated from Yreka High School in 1943.

She married Russell Seaman in June 1945. They raised their three children in Yreka. Joy worked many years as a bank teller for Crocker Bank. She was widowed in 1963. She raised her children and continued to spend time with family and friends. Joy married Bob McAboy in March 1981. Joy and Bob moved to Hawkinsville where they enjoyed their swimming pool, garden, and spending time with their children and grandchildren. Joy was a life-long member of the United Methodist Church and a choir member for many years. Joy retired from the bank in 1982. After retirement they enjoyed traveling with their trailer and by train.

Bob preceded Joy in death in 2013. Joy is survived by her children, Ray (Annie) Seaman of Stevensville, MT, Bob (Norma) Seaman of Happy Camp, and Jane (Drew) Emmett of Springfield, OR. She leaves 6 grandchildren; Tim (Corrie) Seaman of Square Butte, MT, Heather (Stan) Meigs of Florence, MT, Pauline (Howard) Brodmerkle of Redding, CA, Beth (Peter) Szabo of Benicia, CA, Margaret (Brian) Browder of Incline Village, NV, and Jeff (Leah) Emmett of Springfield, OR. She also leaves 9 great grandchildren; Ryan, Lillian, Olivia, Isaac, Kayla, Ben, Sam, Allison, and Andy. Joy lived her life as a part of the large close-knit Siskiyou County Bray family, who support each other and gather often.

A funeral service will be held at Girdner Funeral Chapel followed by interment at Henley-Hornbrook Cemetery on Saturday, October 4, 2014 at 1:00 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Madrone Hospice 255 Collier Circle, Yreka, CA 96097.
