

Joyce O. Carson

August 7, 1935 - December 27, 2014

Longtime Siskiyou County resident Joyce O. Carson passed away December 27, 2014 at her home at Copco Lake. She was 79 years old.

Joyce was born August 7, 1935 in Buffalo, New York to William and Evangeline Oglebay. She was a mathematician for the U.S. Government, working with computers. She also was a bookkeeper for an auto parts retailer. Joyce and her husband, Edward Carson, owned the Sears store in Yreka before it became Siskiyou Home and Garden. Joyce was a member of a bridge club and car club in Yreka.

Joyce is survived by her son, Aaron Carson of Copco, and two sisters, Alma Moore and Florence "Flicka" Dormer. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Carson in 2000 and a brother, Bruce Oglebay.

No services are scheduled. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Madrone Hospice, 255 Collier Circle, Yreka, CA 96097.

“ Dear Aaron and family...I was very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She and your dad were a wonderful, happy couple that gave a lot of joy to so many people in Yreka. Your mom and I had an 'ongoing' joke about clear refrigerators, and I kept in touch w/her for some time after your dad died. Their memories will be with me always. Holding you all in thoughts and prayers. Mary Lou La Com

“ dear alma and Florence jim and I first met joyce and ed when they first opened up their sears store in Yreka. what a nice couple and a very, very lovely lady. joyce had a good sense of humor too. we would have some nice talking sessions and we could laugh. joyce did not have a big laugh but I loved to see her smile and I knew she wanted to laugh out loud but just could not do it. we talked about everything under the sun and then some. she will be missed a lot. hope your sorrow will heal fast.

sincerely, jim and georgie
