

Lisa Marie Campidonica

February 19, 1963 - August 13, 2012

Lisa Campidonica, 49, of Summerville, Calif. died in an automobile accident on Monday, August 13, 2012 near Cecilville, Calif.

Lisa was born in Tucson, Ariz. on February 19, 1963 to Bob and Joan Campidonica. She attended Shasta High School and Shasta Junior College in Redding, Calif. She was a resident of Red Bluff, Calif. where she was the school nurse at Bidwell Elementary School and was a registered Emergency Medical Technician.

She has lived the past several years in Summerville where she has been a homemaker, gardener and a great cookie maker.

She is survived by her son, Ian Witcher, of Red Bluff, her mother, Joan Simpson of Scottsdale, Ariz., her soul-mate, Don Lewis, of Summerville and her brothers, Mark Campidonica, of Georgetown, Calif. and Tony Campidonica of Scottsdale.

There will be a celebration of her life the afternoon of Saturday, August 25, 2012 at her home in Summerville.